

BlueJeans Events

Host, manage, and livestream interactive video, web, and audio events for large audiences around the world.

BlueJeans Events combine the collaborative features of a meeting platform with the scalability of a broadcast — connecting presenters with attendees through an interactive, immersive video experience.

Connect with employees, customers, partners, and prospects

Organize online video events with up to 15,000 attendees and 100 interactive presenters anywhere in the world. BlueJeans Events helps companies create engagement-driven town halls, all-hands meetings, webinars and trainings, and effective internal communications that drive business goals and transform corporate culture.

Easily manage live virtual events with intuitive and robust controls

With the powerful BlueJeans Events Moderator App, moderators can control all aspects of the live event with a full suite of engagement tools including Q&A moderation, audience polling, and audio-video controls — all within a single dashboard. Events can even be customized to include logos and different on-screen layouts.

Facilitate an interactive experience that keeps attendees engaged

Enable presenters and audiences worldwide to participate and engage live over video by providing open and transparent channels of communication for business leaders. With BlueJeans Events, audiences have the ability to contribute content, share opinions, and voice feedback.

KEY FEATURES

Large-scale event support

Easily host live all-hands, town hall meetings, webinars, and training events worldwide that can accommodate 15,000 attendees and 100 interactive presenters. Also broadcast and livestream to Facebook Live to reach even larger audiences.
